

Intuitive Counseling Disclosure Statement
Teresa Robertson RN, CNM-Ret, MS, Intuitive Counselor

I have been practicing as an Intuitive Counselor since 1996. I graduated with a BS in Nursing in 1982 and with a MS in Nursing in 1991. I currently hold a current Nursing License within the State of Colorado. The Colorado Nurse Practice act allows for nurses to provide counseling. The Colorado Nursing Board is located at 1560 Broadway, Suite 670 in Denver, 80202. (303)894-2436.

In 1996 I graduated from The Psychic Horizons Center and became ordained as a minister through the Church of the Inner Light, a non-denominational Christian Church. I am currently a minister in good standing within this church. Ministers through the church of The Inner Light have been trained to provide intuitive counseling in addition to other Minister services such as baptisms, marriages, and funerals. The Church of the Inner Light is located at 1535 Spruce St, Boulder, CO, 80302 (303)440-7171.

I have received education and training to provide general counseling. I am not qualified, nor strive to provide psychotherapy. If during our counseling sessions together it becomes apparent to me that you would benefit from psychotherapy; I will share that with you, and provide you with information for at least three therapists. Seeing a psychotherapist will not risk you out from continuing to use my services.

Client Rights and Important Information:

- a. You are entitled to receive information from me about my methods of counseling, the techniques I use, the duration of your care (if I can determine it), and my fee structure. Please ask if you would like to receive this information.
- b. You can seek a second opinion from another counselor or terminate at any time.
- c. In a professional relationship (such as ours), sexual intimacy between a therapist and a client is never appropriate. If sexual intimacy occurs, it should be reported to the State Grievance Board.
- d. Generally speaking, information provided by and to a client during counseling sessions with a counselor is legally confidential; and the therapist counselor cannot disclose the information without the client's consent.
- e. There are exceptions to the general rule of legal confidentiality They include:
 - If records are ordered by a judge in a court hearing or trial.
 - If there is a violent act or threat of violence to property, self or others.
 - To Medical personnel in a medical emergency
 - Child protection laws supersede these confidentiality laws and we are required to report all child abuse and neglect

Exceptions are listed in the Colorado Statutes (see section 12-43-218.C.R.S.) If there are other exceptions that are relevant, I will identify them to you as soon as the situations arise in our counseling.

If you have any questions, please ask me.

Please sign below to insure that you have been informed about the contents of this statements (including the full practice description), acknowledging your rights in any therapeutic relationship within the State of Colorado.

Client Signature

Date